

Join us for a web-seminar with Ms. Carole Harvey Stevenson Veterinary Critical Care Basics Are Most Important

September 25, 2013, 21:00-22:00

Seminar Highlights:

- Triage – understand triage categories and their importance
- Emergency patient initial evaluation
- Examples and discussion of emergency stabilization procedures and cases

Local Time:

- 21:00 China, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore and Taiwan
- 18:30 India • 20:00 Thailand • 22:00 Korea

Duration: 1 Hour

Location: Online

Cost: Complimentary

Language: Conducted in English (with Chinese translation)

To register, please visit:

<http://tinyurl.com/Hills-Sept-25>

(Please register 2 days (48 hours) before actual webinar time.)

Technical Information for the web-seminar:

This web-seminar is hosted by Hill's Far East Veterinary Affairs. When you register for this web-seminar, you will receive a confirmation e-mail 2 days before the seminar. You do not receive the e-mail or you have any questions, do feel free to contact Hill's Far East Veterinary Affairs at: vetsupport_fareast@hillspet.com.

You may also contact your local Hill's representatives.

MS. CAROLE HARVEY STEVENSON

- Develops on-line course materials, presents workshops and webinars, in-practice training and lectures on a variety of in-depth topics
- UK nursing qualification
- Australian Diploma in Emergency and Critical Care
- Veterinary Technician Specialist qualification in Emergency and Critical Care (US)

